Who is Reconciliation Saskatoon?

Reconciliation Saskatoon

is a collective of over 115 organizations, businesses, non-profits, faith communities and more who work to actively engage people in reconciliation between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.

OUR IMPACT

Rock Your Roots: Walk for Reconciliation

draws thousands of people to Victoria Park in Saskatoon each year to show and grow their commitment to truth and reconciliation. The Walk honours Survivors and brings together Indigenous, non-Indigenous and newcomer peoples on the beautiful riverfront to recognize and celebrate our diversity.

Outreach Events attract diverse audiences to share Indigenous knowledge and dig deeper into reconciliation issues. Through these events, we connect people to Indigenous Knowledge Keepers, Survivors, artists, educators and raise awareness and cultural competency in our community.

The Youth Advocates & Community Advocates are programs that remove barriers for youth and people with lived experience to participate in event organizing, action groups, training opportunities and connection with Knowledge Keepers.

Action Groups develop initiatives to address truth & reconciliation in specific areas: Newcomers, Youth/Families, Business Engagement, Healing, Two Spirit Education and a Book Club. Each group gathers Indigenous, non-Indigenous and newcomer members to engage in building community & action.

Knowledge Keepers & Survivors are at the heart of everything we do. Knowledge Keepers and Survivors of Residential Schools, Day Schools, Sixties Scoop and Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women & Girls share stories, experiences and knowledge that guide our work and inform events and initiatives. We focus on nurturing these relationships and caring for community.

BeAConnectR.com is an innovative online tool that helps people find and respond to calls to action and move forward on a path of reconciliation. ConnectR programming & events build community and support people on their journeys, providing the education and resources that people need.

"Reconciliation Saskatchewan groups are more than networking circles. Being a part of these circles means working on action(s) together. We inspire each other, we inform each other, we present solutions together, discuss often difficult things. No one person or organization can do this work alone." - Member
